

THREE DEGREES BREWERY BAR & BRASSERIE

- QV
MELBOURNE, VIC
ALH

“A multi-functional social hub.”

Dani Valent - The Age 'Agenda', 17 June, 2004

1&3. Ground floor bar
2. Level 1 lounge
4. Private dining room

Three Degrees is a new city pub at the heart of the QV development in Melbourne's CBD. The design incorporates a micro-brewery and is a destination for both workers and residents in the central city. Located over two levels, the venue enjoys a frontage to the QV central square with an upper level terrace overlooking the activity below. The pub also caters for dining, either through a series of informal spaces or through private rooms suited to corporate occasions.

Australian Hotels Association Awards - 2004

Winner of Best Metropolitan Bar

Winner of Best Metropolitan Hotel without Gaming